PTA

Halldale

"Developing Team Morale" set the theme for the meeting of the Halldale PTA, which was called to order by the president, Mrs. David P. Goolby at 7:30 in the Halldale auditorium, Thursday, March 8.

The inspirational message, "Some of God's Mysteries," was given by Mrs. D. K. Schell, accompanied at the piano by Mrs. Robert M. Shurges.

A panel composed of two A-6 students, Carole Salcido and Roger Ross and a panel composed of three teachers: Mrs. Elizabeth Henson, Richard Taylor, and Robert Dugan, and a panel of three parents, Mrs. E. N. Reese, Mrs. John Blackmon and W. L. Harvey, moderated by Mrs. W. L. Harvey, discussed television and radio in the home.

Highlight of the evening was speaker Dean Craig, program director from KRCA, channel 4. He kept his audience completely interested. The suggestion that he made were as down to earth as possible and were gleaned from his own experiences.

Completing the musical portion of the program, Ruth Adams sang "Velvet Shoes" and "Circles and Squares." She was accompanied at the piano by Patricia Grof.

The newly-elected officers for 1956-57 term are as follows: President, Mrs. E. N. Reese; first vice president, Mrs. Louis Funch; second vice president, Mrs. Guy Adams; recording secretary, Mrs. E. E. Alves; financial secretary, Mrs. Judson Bowers; corresponding secretary, Mrs. F. E. Dyer; treasurer, Mrs. Frank Bowling; historian, Mrs. William H. Dunston; auditor, Mrs. Bill Overstreet.

Once again polo shots were administered to the students at Halldale Avenue School. This time 425 pupils of all grades received their vaccine.

PTA ladies assisting the doctor were Mrs. Frank Bowling, E. N. Reese, W. L. Harvey, George Winters, J. D. Edens, and Fred Schimmel.

On March 6, Halldale PTA was hostesses to the Lomita-San Pedro Council PTA. The luncheon was prepared by the Halldale board members under the chairmanship of Mrs. F. E. Dyer and the beautiful table decorations were made by Mrs. William H. Dunston, air chairwoman.

Next executive board meeting will be held Friday, April 6, at 9:30 a.m. in the auditorium.
